Answer the following questions in order to assist us in determining your qualifications for our program. This application will be accepted ONLY if hand-written.

This program will require you to work closely with our staff. Please be completely honest and candid in your responses. Use the back of each page if you need more room to answer.

Fax this completed application to (310) 861-1614, or call for more information: 310-926-1822.

1. Why do you want to be a court qualified questioned document examiner?

2. Why do you feel that the staff at The International School of Forensic Document Examination can provide you with the training and professional guidance you need to succeed?

3. Which books, courses, or seminars by Bart Baggett have you already taken, and what you have gained from that experience?

4. How much annual income would you require to feel that this program was worth the investment? How much income per year do you expect after your training is complete?

5. Are you willing to give us candid feedback throughout the program? And are you willing to accept constructive criticism to assist you in your training?

6. What has been your preferred method of learning in the past? (Classroom, self-study, one-on-one tutoring, online classes, etc.) Do you have any hesitations about your ability to learn using any of the following methods: tele-classes, books, video, seminar presentations, or newsletters?

7. Tell us briefly about any past experience related to the legal field.

8. Under what circumstances would it be justified to fail to keep a commitment?

9. In your previous education, have you ever failed to complete classes, and/or to graduate?
Briefly explain the circumstances.

10. Describe your skills regarding conflict resolution.

11. Describe any habits or issues that have interfered in the past with your success or happiness.

12. Tell us three things about yourself that would make you a unique asset to this program.
